INTRODUCTION TO THIS PRIVATE BODY

Seaward Estates (the Estate) is a residential estate located in Ballito in South Africa. Seaward Master Homeowners' Association (the Association) is an unincorporated homeowners' association established to manage, administer, promote, advance and protect the Estate and the interests of property owners in the Estate.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (PAIA) came into operation on 23 November 2001. Section 51 of PAIA requires that we as a private body compile a manual giving information to the public (being all third parties, including our members) regarding the procedure to be followed in requesting information from us for the purpose of exercising or protecting rights.

We as a private body have compiled this manual, not only to comply with the provisions of PAIA as read with the applicable provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPI), but also to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in our environment and to ensure that members of the public have effective access to information in our possession which will assist them in the exercise and protection of their rights.

Inside these pages you will be able to view the categories of information which we possess. You will also be shown the correct procedure to follow should you require access to any of this information.

A copy of this manual is also available on our website.

2. Procedure for requesting access to the above information.

If you wish to request access to any of the above categories of information, you are required to complete a request form as set out in Annexure “A” hereto. These forms are available from:

- our information officer (whose contact details are in section A of this manual).
- the SAHRC website (whose contact details are in section B of this manual).

The completed form must be delivered to the information officer (whose contact details are in section A of this manual).

There is a prescribed fee (payable in advance) for requesting and accessing information in terms of the Act. Details of these fees are contained in the request form and in Annexure “B” hereto.

You may also be called upon to pay the additional fees prescribed by regulation for searching for and compiling the information which you have requested, including copying charges.

It is important to note that access is not automatic – you must identify the right you are seeking to exercise or protect and explain why the record you request is required for the exercise or protection of that right. You will be notified in the manner indicated by you on the request form whether your request has been approved.

SECTION D – INFORMATION AVAILABLE IN TERMS OF OTHER LEGISLATION

Where applicable to our operations, information may also be available in terms of certain provisions of the following statutes. Unless disclosure is prohibited, records that are required to be made available in terms of these statutes shall be made available for inspection by interested parties in terms of the requirements and conditions of PAIA, the below-mentioned legislation and applicable internal policies and procedures should such interested parties be entitled to such information. A request for access to such documents must be made in accordance with PAIA and the procedure described above. SECTION E – INFORMATION AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

The following categories of records are automatically available for inspection, purchase, or photocopying, as the case may be, to those categories of persons recorded below.

In other words, those persons entitled to access the documents do not need to request this information in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act.

Requests for access to these categories of information must also be made to our information officer, whose contact details appear in section A of this manual.

	Category of Persons	Information Automatically Available
1.	Members of the Association	Those records of the Association, which, in terms of the Association's Constitution, are open to inspection by its members, subject to the terms of the Association's Constitution from time to time.
2.	General Public	Newsletters, booklets, pamphlets / brochures, reports, posters and other literature intended for public viewing, typically those documents disclosed on our website.

SECTION F - PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Association is committed to complying with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPI) in relation to the processing of your personal information.

The Association has adopted a POPI Policy which describes how and why we collect, store, use, share or otherwise process your personal information. It also explains your rights in relation to your personal information and how to contact us if you have a question or complaint. A copy of the Association's POPI Policy is available at our website.

Section 51 of PAIA requires that this manual also addresses the following issues insofar as POPI is concerned.

If there is a conflict between any provision of this Manual and a provision of the POPI Policy, the provisions of both documents shall apply concurrently, to the extent that it is possible to apply and comply with one of the inconsistent provisions without contravening the second; and to the extent that it is impossible to apply and comply with one of the inconsistent provisions without contravening the second, the provisions of the POPI Policy prevail, except to the extent that this Manual expressly provides otherwise.

3. Purpose of the processing

In addition to that personal information listed in Section C of this Manual, above, the Association may collect and process the following information for the purposes described below:

Information Type	Reasons why we may use this information
Identification information: such as your name, photograph, passport, national identification, biometric information, gender, date of birth, vehicle registration number, vehicle license and driving license, information regarding your employer.	To verify your identity to, inter alia , enable you to enter the Estate, to provide services to you, undertake adequate security and monitoring measures, comply with our legal and contractual obligations, and otherwise for our legitimate interests or those of a third party.
Contact information: such as, email address; telephone number; physical address; erf number	To contact you with information relevant to you as a resident / service provider / supplier of the Estate and/or its residents; to keep you informed about our activities and updates, to respond to any queries and requests, to manage and resolve any commercial or legal complaints or issues, to carry out planning and forecasting activities, to comply with our legal and contractual obligations, and otherwise for our legitimate interests or those of a third party.
Contact and payment information and other information of suppliers / contractors / service providers: such as, name; email; telephone number; address, payment, and bank details	To enable us to procure products and services from you, to keep you informed about our activities and updates, to respond to any queries and requests, to carry out market analysis and research, to carry out planning and forecasting activities, for other internal business processes, to comply with our legal and contractual obligations, and otherwise for our legitimate interests or those of a third party.
Contact and other information of our directors, trustees, staff (past / present) / prospective employees: contact details, employment history, references, vetting information, financial information including banking details, IT information and other information relating to employment (e.g.: leave; appraisals etc.)	To enable you to carry out your role / duties, to carry out our contract with you, monitor your performance and compliance with our policies / standards / procedures, provide you with training and benefits and provide remuneration, to comply with our legal and contractual obligations, and otherwise for our legitimate interests or those of a third party

To allow you access to our Estate in line with our security policies and procedures and to manage and resolve any legal or commercial complaints or issues, including security practices.

4. Categories of data subjects and the information relating thereto.

The Association may collect and process the personal information of the following categories of data subjects:

- Members (natural persons), their family members, guests, service providers and employees.
- Members (juristic persons) and their governing bodies, guests, service providers and employees.
- Estate management and employees.
- Service providers, suppliers and advisors.
- Users of the Estate's website and other social media platforms; and
- Other persons who enter the Estate or otherwise have dealings with the Estate.

Please refer to the table under section 1 above for examples of the kinds of information collected from these data subjects.

5. Recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied.

Depending on the circumstances, we may disclose your personal information to the following categories of persons:

- Auditors, legal and other professional advisers and consultants of the Estate or other third parties who help us deliver our services, including the Estate's managing agents and all committees of the Association.
- Information Technology service providers and other service providers who help us run the Estate or otherwise manage or store the personal information.
- Government and law enforcement authorities.
- Financial institutions.
- Other third parties where disclosure is required by law or otherwise required for us to perform our obligations and provide our services; and

- To any other person with your consent to the disclosure.

6. Planned transborder flows of personal information.

The Association may transfer data outside of South Africa in order to store data with third party cloud storage providers. The Association will only transfer personal information to other countries if required to perform our obligations and/or provide our services or if required in the circumstances (for example: where members of the Association do not reside in South Africa). In this case the Association will only do so in accordance with POPI and other relevant legislation, or if the data subject consents to the transfer of personal information to another country.

7. Information security measures

The Association employs several means to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of your personal information in its possession, including but not limited to the following security measures:

- Limiting access to information to those persons who require access to the information in accordance with the purpose for the processing of that information.
- Firewalls
- Virus protection software and update protocols
- Logical and physical access control
- Secure setup of hardware and software making up the IT infrastructure.
- Outsourced Service Providers who process Personal Information on behalf of the Estate / Association are contracted to implement security controls.

GN R.991 of 14 October 2005: Exemptions and determinations for purposes of section 22 (8)

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AND CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT

I, Brigitte Sylvia Mabandla, Minister for Justice and Constitutional Development, acting under section 22 (8) of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) hereby—

- (a) exempt the following persons from paying the access fee contemplated in section 22 (6) of the Act:
 - (i) A single person whose annual income, after permissible deductions referred to in the Schedule to this notice are made, does not exceed R14 712,00 per annum; and
 - (ii) married persons or a person and his or her life partner whose annual income, after permissible deductions referred to in the Schedule to this notice are made, does not exceed R27 192,00 per annum, and
- (b) determine that—
 - (i) where the cost of collecting any fee contemplated in section 22 of the Act, exceeds the amount charged, such fee does not apply.
 - (ii) the access fee contemplated in section 22 (6) of the Act does not apply to the personal record of a requester; and
 - (iii) the request fee contemplated in section 22 (1) of the Act and the access fee contemplated in section 22 (6) of the Act do not apply to a record requested by a maintenance officer or maintenance investigator for purposes of a maintenance investigation or inquiry in terms of the provisions of the Maintenance Act, 1998 (Act No. 99 of 1998) or the regulations made under section 44 of that Act.

SCHEDULE

For purposes of paragraph (a) (i) and (ii) of the notice the following deductions are permissible:

- (a) Employees' tax in terms of paragraph 2 of Part II of the Fourth Schedule of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962).
- (b) contributions in terms of section 5 of the Unemployment Insurance Contributions Act, 2002 (Act No. 4 of 2002).
- (c) compulsory contributions to a Group Insurance Fund in terms of a court order or in terms of a contract between an employer and his or her employee.
- (d) contributions to any medical scheme registered under the provisions of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 (Act No. 131 of 1998), and allowed to be deducted in terms of section 18 (1) (a) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962).

- (e) contributions to pension funds in terms of section 13A of the Pension Funds Act, 1956 (Act No. 24 of 1956).
- (f) rent or mortgage instalments to the maximum of R12 000,00 per annum.
- (g) maintenance paid in terms of a court order; and
- (h) school fees, except school fees paid to a private school.
